Rule 7.060, Florida Rules of Summary Procedures Provides:

Right to Venue

The law gives the person or company who has sued you the right to file suit in any one of several places as listed below. However, if you have been sued in any place other than one of these places, you, as the defendant, have the right to request that the case be removed to a proper location or venue. A proper location or venue may be one of the following:

1. Where the contract was entered into;
2. If the suit is on unsecured promissory note, where the note is signed or where maker resides;
3. If the suit is to recover property or to foreclose a lien, where the property is located;
4. Where the event giving rise to the suit occurred;
5. Where any one or more of the defendant sued resides;
6. Any location agreed to in a contract.

If you, as a defendant believe the plaintiff has not sued in one of these correct places, you may appear on your court date and orally request a transfer or you may file a written request for transfer, in affidavit form (sworn to under oath) with the court, seven days prior to your first court date and send a copy to the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney, if any.

STATEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY
(Civil Case $15,000.00 or less)

Before filing this case I have considered the following matters and acknowledge that:

1. This case is being filed in the County Court under the Summary Procedure Rules of court; that it is considered a layman's court; that I, and the Defendant(s), may be represented by an attorney of our individual choice but neither is required to do so, and that the conduct of this case will be in accordance with the rules of procedure and laws of Florida which apply to this case.
2. The naming of proper parties is an important element of the case and the responsibility for naming the proper Plaintiff(s) and Defendant(s) in this case is mine.
3. I am responsible for the furnishing of a correct address or location at which the Defendant(s) can be served or given notice of this suit.
4. I assume responsibility as to my right to file this case for myself or for the named Plaintiff(s).
5. I do not expect the Clerk, who received and files this claim, to give me legal advice as to how to prosecute this case and acknowledge that the Clerk is not acting as my attorney or legal advisor.
6. I am solely responsible for the collection of any judgment entered in my favor.
