

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, FOURTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR NASSAU COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO.:
DIVISION: A

_____,
Plaintiff,
vs.
_____,
Defendant(s).

_____ /

1ORDER SETTING NON-JURY TRIAL

It appearing that this cause is at issue and ready for trial, it is, therefore,

ORDERED:

1. This cause is hereby set for a Non-Jury Trial on _____ beginning at 3:00 p.m. before the Honorable Steven M. Fahlgren, Circuit Judge in the Grand Jury Room of the Robert M. Foster Justice Center, 76347 Veterans Way, Yulee, FL 32097 VIA Zoom.²

2. It has come to the Court's attention that many defendants do not object to the entry of a foreclosure judgment at the final hearing once they have had an opportunity to review the proposed final judgment. Therefore, at least ten (10) days prior to the trial in this matter, counsel for the Plaintiff shall file the Plaintiff's proposed judgment with the Clerk of Court by attaching same to a Notice of Filing Proposed Final Judgment As Attached. The proposed judgment shall be watermarked "draft." The notice of filing shall include the language "as attached" following the description of the proposed order because the "as attached" description aids the Clerk of Court in processing the filing correctly. Copies of the notice of filing and proposed judgment shall be served upon the Defendant(s) by U.S. Mail or via e-portal at least ten (10) days prior to the trial. If a defendant consents to the entry of the proposed judgment, the defendant may file with the clerk a notice of consent to the entry of the proposed final judgment. The parties shall immediately notify the Court by email to the Court's Judicial Assistant at astrickland@nassauclerk.com if this case settles so that other litigants may utilize the time reserved for trial in this matter.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Yulee, Nassau County, Florida, this ____ day of _____, 2017.

STEVEN M. FAHLGREN
CIRCUIT JUDGE

¹ This order should be submitted to the Court for entry by U.S. Mail with appropriate copies and envelopes for all parties. This footnote should be removed prior to doing so.

FORECLOSURE COURT CORONAVIRUS HEARING ADDENDUM

Various administrative orders have directed that most hearings be conducted either by telephonic means or video conference utilizing the Zoom Application, Skype, etc. in an attempt to contain the spread of the coronavirus. See <https://www.floridasupremecourt.org/News-Media/Court-News>, <http://www.duvalclerk.com/adminOrders/#/page/10/1>, and <https://nassauclerk.com/> There are also various orders from the executive branch that prohibit gatherings of people under certain circumstances. See, e.g., <https://www.flgov.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/03/EO-20-68.pdf>, and <https://www.nassaucountyfl.com/1021/Corona-Virus-Updates>

This Addendum will be filed in any foreclosure case that is scheduled for hearing, and it shall be attached and referenced in any notice of hearing or proposed order scheduling hearing submitted by the parties. If any matter set for hearing did not include this addendum in the hearing notice or order scheduling, the plaintiff shall file and serve the parties with a new notice that includes this addendum.

The Court adopts this addendum into the Order Setting or notice of hearing to which it is attached. It is the desire of the Court to provide maximum services to the parties during this time while complying with all directives of the Supreme Court, the Chief Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, the Administrative Judge of Nassau County, as well as federal, state and local authorities.

1. For hearings and bench trials in all civil matters, the Court prefers using the Zoom™ application³ because numerous individuals can remote into the hearing and await their turn for their case to be called. If the Rule of Sequestration is invoked, the Court can keep others in the waiting room until it is their turn to testify.

2. For matters involving dockets, such as foreclosure court, it is anticipated that each case will be called as if the parties were present in the hearing room. Using the Zoom™ application allows for multiple parties to appear remotely and await their case being called.

³ For instructions how to sign up for Zoom™, please visit <https://zoom.us/resources> There is no fee to join a meeting hosted by someone else. The Court will be hosting the meetings

Therefore, it will not be necessary for the parties to coordinate with the judicial assistant or clerk if they are logged into Zoom on or before the start of the hearing.

3. Unless otherwise notified by Court Order or the Court's Judicial Assistant, the link to Join the Court's Zoom™ Meeting for all foreclosure hearings shall be:

Dial by your location +1 253 215 8782 US

4. For hearings involving exhibits, proposed orders, original documents, or copies of cases cited, the parties are directed to provide courtesy copies to the Court at least two (2) business days prior to the hearing with copies to all parties who have not been defaulted as it custom and required by the Rules by mail, hand delivery or by email to astrickland@nassauclerk.com. Of course, counsel submitting proposed orders should also furnish sufficient self-addressed stamped envelopes to the Court via mail for service of any orders when a party is not signed up for the e-portal.⁴

5. A copy of this addendum without a case specific style shall be posted at <https://www.nassauclerk.com/judge-steven-m-fahlgren/>

6. Because of the fluid nature of the coronavirus pandemic, the Court reserves jurisdiction to modify this Addendum by posting any addendum on the Court's website at the link referenced above.

⁴ Individuals who represent themselves are strongly encouraged to Sign up for the Florida Courts E-Filing Portal to avoid delays in receiving documents. For instructions on how to do so, please check the following link: <https://www.myflcourtaccess.com/authority/trainingvideos.html>
